

STATE CAPITOL NEWS

By MELVIN LORD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, July 3 —(UP)—Flags on the capitol and other state buildings were lowered to half mast as official California mourned the sudden death of Adj. Gen. Seth E. Howard, commander of the national guard.

Prominent because of his activity a year ago when 4,000 troops were moved into San Francisco at the height of the waterfront strikes, General Howard was watching developments in the lumber trouble at Eureka and was in the midst of working for improved national guard facilities when a heart attack caused his death.

He was given a military funeral in Los Angeles. Lt. Col. Paul Arndt executive officer, assumed temporary command of the guard pending the appointment of a successor to General Howard, who was named to the post in 1931 by the late Gov. James Rolph, Jr., and retained by Gov. Merriam.

Before leaving for Los Angeles to spend most of the week, Governor Merriam disposed of all important tax measures except the controversial chain store tax bill, on which he will hold a public hearing July 11th.

The tax bills he signed provide for a 3 per cent sales tax with food exempt; doubled bank and corporation franchise taxes; a state tax of $1.75 per $100 actual valuation on automobiles, in lieu of present county and city personal property taxes on vehicles; increased inheritance tax and provisions tightening the sales tax to prevent evasions. Previously, he had signed the state income tax and the new liquor control and tax bills.

Temporarily disrupted by the new civil service act which removed several hundred "temporary" employees from their jobs, the board of equalization had a busy week developing plans for replacing the employees with persons certified by the state personnel board, and breaking in the new workers.

The board also studied the new liquor control act and planned to conduct a "school" for liquor officers, in order that they might become thoroughly acquainted with the new stamp tax, license fees and sundry details concerning the liquor situation.

The California Retail Grocers announced they would seek a supreme court opinion on the validity of the food exemption provision in the new sales tax act. They desire to settle this question quickly, because if the act is unconstitutional and the rate drops from 3 to 2 per cent, with no exemptions, grocers will be called upon to pay a 2 per cent tax which they had not collected.

A. E. Stockburger, director of finance, made a tour of state institutions, particularly mental hospitals, to obtain a first hand view of over-crowded conditions which will be corrected if the electorate approves a $13,950,000 bond issue August 13.

Highway engineers said the expiration June 30 of the law requiring a 30-hour week on public works would have little effect on highway construction crews, because nearly all the building now underway is being financed by federal funds and must follow federal regulations which include a 30-hour week provision.

Counties, cities and other political subdivisions must continue limiting their budget increases to no more than five per cent above the previous year's expenditures, as a result of Governor Merriam's signing the budget limitation bill. Object of the act is to prevent local taxes from rising without just cause.

REBEKAHS HAVE WHIST PARTY

A whist party was held for the members of Naomi Rebekah Lodge No. 2 following the regular meeting last week. Mrs. Emma Powell and J. C. Titus received prizes for high score and Mrs. Gertrude Smith received consolation prize. Mrs. Bessie Talcott received a special prize. Refreshments were served following the awarding of prizes.

NEW LINE UP FOR UNEMPLOYMENT

Men to Register Through NRS, Minimum Wage
Raised to $50.

C. F. Galligan, district manager of the National Re-employment Service was in town on Saturday making arrangements to have the registrations for re-employment taken care of again.

It is understood that under the new public works program employment on local projects will be handled through the National Re-employment Service. Mr. Galligan stated that Joe Delaney of Grass Valley, who is well known in Truckee, will have charge of the VRS for Nevada County. C. Edmunds will handle the registration for the rest of the county as he has in the past.

As soon as the organization has been completed, it is expected it will replace the present social service department of the SERA.

Under the new NRS setup the main requirement for employment will be that those desiring work shall be unemployed. The present minimum of $20 will be raised to a minimum of $50 a month for single men and correspondingly greater for those having dependents.

Funeral Services Held For Mrs. Summers

Burial services were held on Friday afternoon in the Odd Fellows Cemetery for Mrs. Anna Elizabeth Summers, wife of Wm. Summers. The pall bearers were Frank Brummond, Harry Oliver, Dan Sala and George Andrich.

Mrs. Summers was a native of Alghany, Sierra County and had lived in California all her life. She was married to Wm. Summers in Sierra where they made their home for thirty-six years. They later moved to Hobart Mills and had lived in Truckee for five years.

Mrs. Summers passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. V. M. Rablin in Roseville after a short illness.

The surviving relatives are her husband Wm. Summers and two daughters, Mrs. Thomas F. Maher of Vallejo and Mrs. Rablin of Roseville, a sister, Mrs. Alex Robertson and seven grandchildren. A son Ludolph passed away at Camp Kearney during the World War.

Petition Circulated to Relocate Alley Lines

A petition drawn up by the Board of Supervisors has been circulated the past week for the relocating of the alley lines in the rear of Main Street. This alley has been recorded as a 25 foot alley and it is now proposed to shorten it to a 15 foot alley granting to the property owners along the Main Street the additional 10 feet in the rear of each of their lots.

Judge Sets Aside Order of Citizenship

Judge Raglan Tuttle made an order in the Superior Court on June 26th setting aside a previous order admitting Humbert Ciardelli to citizenship.

The order was made on June 25, 1935 and the government made a motion to set it aside on the ground that the defendant had been convicted of selling liquor to an Indian, which under federal law is a felony.

The court in the opinion setting aside his citizenship says: "The Federal naturalization act provides that the applicant during the five years of residence required by the law, shall have behaved as a man of good moral character. The holding of the courts is practically universal that the commission of a crime by an applicant, at least during the five years preceding his application for citizenship is sufficient reason for denying him citizenship on the ground that he has not behaved as a man of good moral character."

The offense alleged against Ciardelli was committed within a month prior to hearing the application for citizenship and long after the declaration had been filed, and it has been held by the federal court to be a felony.

Counsel for Ciardelli maintained that the offense of selling liquor to an Indian was in the same category as that of a violation of the Volstead act and that some courts have held that such a violation will not be a bar to admission to citizenship.

Judge Tuttle in his opinion on the case holds that the motion of the government must be granted and the order admitting Ciardelli to citizenship "must be vacated and set aside, and his application for citizenship is hereby dismissed. The court holds however, that it may be renewed when five years have elapsed from the date of the conviction of the charge of selling liquor to an Indian."

Tony's Club and Coffee Shop Open at New Location

A. B. Polyanich, proprietor of Tony's Club and Coffee Shop opened for business at his new location on Thursday, July 4.

Mr. Polyanich has had his new establishment completely remodeled and renovated and it presents a very pleasing appearance and is one of the most modern in this region. A new front has been placed in the building and the interior completely refinished.

Mr. Polyanich has a large service bar which he will have charge of personally located in the front of the new establishment and the coffee shop in charge of Dan Pazin is located in the rear.

The Club and Coffee Shop have a reputation of serving only the best of liquors and food and are prepared to serve their patrons with the same high quality service at their new location.

UTILITY DISTRICT CONSIDER NEW OFFICE QUARTERS

Offers Already Received for New Location. Acquisition of Own Property Desire of Directors.

At a meeting of the directors of the Truckee Public Utility District held this week, the matter of acquiring permanent quarters for their office was discussed.

The directors have already received three offers to lease office quarters. The places under consideration are the Cozzaglio building, next to the new theatre building, the Polyanich building, where the Coffee Shop has been located, and the Sherri building next to the Truckee Bakery. All these buildings are on the Main Street.

The directors are of the opinion, however, that they should acquire their own property and either buy some property that can be remodeled to fit their needs, or buy a lot and erect a new building.

The Smith Estate is prepared to make an offer to the District of a lot on Bridge Street facing Church Street next to Georges Cafe. The Polyanich property has also been offered to the district at a price of $4,000.

The directors have made no definite decision as yet and they are desirous of receiving other offers of property that may be leased or bought in the business district. They have had a number of tentative offers from property owners in the residential district which they do not care to consider. Should the District acquire a lot it is proposed the building would be erected by a government modernization loan.

Forestry Department Fight Brush Fire

The Sardine Valley lookout of the Forestry Service reported a brush fire in the vicinity of Alder Creek at noon on Sunday and men were brought from the Truckee Forestry Station assisted by about 75 or 80 men from the CCC Camp at Rubicon and the Reclamation Camp at Tahoe City. About sixty acres were reported burned over before the fire was extinguished on Tuesday morning. It is supposed that the fire was caused by a fisherman who carelessly dropped cigarette or match.

M. J. McGinnis is with the Postal Telegraph Co. in Oakland for the summer months. Mrs. McGinnis is spending a few weeks in Oakland with her husband.

Local Couple Injured In Automobile Crash

Tony Pace and Miss Jean Williams narrowly escaped serious injury early Sunday morning while returning from Lake Tahoe when their car collided with a truck on the Tahoe Highway near Marshall's Inn.

Pace was blinded by the headlights of an approaching Rubicon Camp CCC truck driven by W. R. Jones and which was loaded with CCC boys who were returning from an outing in Reno.

Miss Williams received painful lacerations about the ear from the flying glass and a possible fractured rib. Pace suffered facial cuts and bruises.

The car was badly damaged.

Alice Harry And T. H. Thibault Wed in Reno

Miss Alice Harry of Nevada City and Theodore D. Thibault of Hobart Mills were married by Rev. Father Jex at Reno on Saturday morning, June 29th.

The bride wore a white crepe dress with blue accessories and carried a bouquet of pink roses and delphinium. Mrs. Cora Chubbuck, sister of the groom, who attended the bride was attired in aqua-marine crepe dress and carried a bouquet of pink roses and maiden hair fern. Jack Chubbuck, nephew of the groom was best man. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Isabel Harry of Nevada City and has been teaching in the Gold Flat District.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Julia Thibault and is employed as foreman of the box factory of the Hobart Estate Co.

After a honeymoon spent in Southern California the young couple will be at home to their friends at their home in Hobart Mills after July 15.

Bank of America Statement Shows Deposit Increase

Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association in its statement of condition as of June 29, 1935 shows total deposits of $993,651,000 and total resources of $1,133,896,000. Bank of America (California) the associated state bank, is not included in the published statement as heretofore.

Over the period of the past 12 months the national bank has increased $130,947,000 in deposits. During the same period it has voluntarily returned $15,000,000 in Postal Savings deposits to the U. S. Post Office Department, and has retired $45,500,000 in outstanding circulation.

In line with the increase in deposits, cash and due from banks increased $34,187,000 and investments in U. S. Government bonds and other securities gained $74,135,000 and surplus has been increased $2,500,000 by a transfer from undivided profits. Bank of America N. T. & S. A. still leads all banks of the nation in the number and dollar value loans made under the National Housing Act, with 15,240 loans made in the total amount of $9,395,493.

During the first six months of this year, Bank of America N. T. & S. A. earned $8,033,717. Of this amount, $2,500,000 was paid in dividends on capital stock, $3,406,291 was added to reserves and $2,127,426 to undivided profits. After the addition of this amount to undivided profits and the transfer of the $2,500,000 to surplus, the undivided profits account stood at $16,791,766. The amount reserved from current earnings made provision for depreciation, bond amortization, losses, contingencies, etc.

Since January 1, 1935, Bank of America N. T. & S. A. has opened five new branches, including the branches opened June 29 at Ferndale and on May 6 on the grounds of the San Diego Exposition. This brings the total branches of Bank of America N. T. & S. A. and its associated state bank to 425 in 258 California communities.

Bank of America (California), the associated state bank, which now operates ten branches, as of June 29 had total deposits of $20,302,000 and total resources of $32,216,000.

BOND ISSUE ELECTION TUESDAY

New School Building Would Cost $30,000 and Replace Condemned Building.

An election will be held on Tuesday, July 9th for the purpose of voting a bond issue of $22,000 for the erection of a new school building for the Truckee Grammar school.

The plans submitted by Marsden & Hurd of San Francisco, architects, call for three class rooms and assembly hall on the ground floor with a playroom for the boys and girls in the basement. The estimated cost of the building is about $30,000, and with the assurance of a $9,000 PWA loan, $21,000 must be raised through a bond issue. Since these figures were estimated, the grant by the government on public work projects has been increased to 45 per cent and there is no doubt the PWA loan can be increased thus making it unnecessary to use the entire $22,000 which is being asked for.

The contemplated school building will replace the present grammar school building which was condemned and found unsafe by an inspector from the state department of public works. The building was vacated this later part of March and classes held in the winter sports pavilion and a dwelling house on Church Street until the close of the school term. These quarters were only temporary and arrangements must be made for permanent quarters for the classes soon after the opening of the new term in August. The trustees have been advised that should the bond issue be defeated that they cannot hold classes in the old building unless permission is given them by the department of public works, who will require repairs to be made to the present building to comply with the safety laws.

The assessed valuation on real estate and personal property for 1935-36 will be $569,435 and the public utilities which will be returned to the county rolls this year will be $758,155. This will mean that there will be a substantial reduction in the tax rate and the voting of the school bond issue will not raise the present tax rate.

The voters of the district will take into consideration on Tuesday the fact that the present building cannot be used without extensive repairs which it is questionable would be warranted due to the age of the building; that a substantial grant can be secured from the government towards financing the new building and the fact that there will be no raise in the present tax rate, due to the fact that the public utilities property will be returned to the county rolls with a large reduction in taxes.

C. H. Noyes of Richmond is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. L. Loynd.

COMMENTS FROM CALIFORNIA NEWSPAPERS

By United Press

LEGISLATURE BREAKS RECORDS

Adjournment of the legislature's record-breaking session might well evoke a sigh of relief from the state at large, in the opinion of many California editors.

But, despite the fact many pre-election promises were not redeemed, results of the lawmakers deliberations might have been worse, it was agreed.

"The legislature," said the Santa Monica Evening Outlook, "has finally adjourned after making the largest appropriations in the history of California and taking no steps to reduce taxation. When due consideration is given to the vast number of bills introduced, however, many of which were ill-considered and mischievous, and to the relatively small number enacted, the public, perhaps may have reason to be thankful. Certainly there will be a sense of relief that adjournment has been taken."

From all aspects," commented the Bakersfield Californian, "this has been a remarkable session, and now the citizens of the state will not only pass judgment upon it, but will be called upon to foot the bill. Somewhere around election times we hear much talk about efficiency and economy. If the bills of the state are high, responsibility cannot all be laid on the representatives in the state legislature. Citizens themselves have been lavish in their demands and the tax burden is only the result."

So far as increasing tax levies is concerned, according to the Tulare Advance-Register, "it was a foregone conclusion that the legislature would be forced to raise new revenue from taxes to compensate for heavy welfare, relief, pension and unemployment expenses of the state. Either that, or a condition of stark bankruptcy. So the solons are to be condoned to a large measure for new taxes levied, as much as people generally oppose higher taxes."

"The success of the administration," notes the Watsonville Register, "in finally getting the legislature to do what it wanted done, brings up the question of why the long session. But perhaps the executive preferred to let the lawmakers muddle along, without leadership or an undue amount of pressure, from the belief that ultimately they would come around. Not all of his program was popular with the 'boys.' And the people are not going to be any too pleased when some of the new budget-balancing laws are put into operation."

In the opinion of the Humboldt Standard "it would, certainly, be an Utopian legislature that could complete a session without arousing criticism of its action. And this legislature is no exception to the rule. Numerous agencies, including various publications, have taken it upon themselves to chide the legislators on things that were done as well as things which were left undone. No doubt much of this criticism is sound and intelligent. By the same token much of it is unsound and carping, reflecting the views of special interests who failed to secure adoption of their programs. In any event legislators should have learned by this time to, so to speak, 'take it on the chin.'"

If the legislature had remained in session a few days longer states the Los Angeles Post-Record, "it would have consumed half the year doing work it might well have done in a month. Measured either by the length of the session, the amount of money allocated for the cost of government, or the weight of taxation it placed upon the shoulders of the citizens of California, it breaks all records. Glancing over the list of its achievements we find that it comes close to establishing another all-time record, for if any legislature accomplished less in a progressive, constructive manner we do not recall it. All in all, it was an exciting, profitless and expensive session. The best thing it did during the entire six months was to adjourn sine die."

A FACT ABOUT BETTER TIMES

If you've grown a little tired of waiting for better times, if you've become a little impatient with reading that prosperity is practically here on the same day you have to go without meat, or cut down on butter—if you've felt this way, just hitch up your belt a notch and hold on a while longer.

It is coming before very much longer, and no mistake this time.

A survey completed by the National Industrial Conference Board disclosed that $69,000,000,000 in buying power has accumulated during the depression.

In other words if we had been able to build homes, to keep things in repair and to replace the old with the new where needed during the past five years, a sum roughly five times the size of the war debts would have kept factories humming and breadlines empty.

Now, after five years of waiting, the pressure of this dammed up purchasing power is tremendous. And eventually it is bound to break through the dykes.

This may or may not be proof that the flood gates have already begun to crack, but another survey the other day showed building activity up to the end of May to be double that of last year. It showed also that California is far ahead of all other states in the national campaign to erect new homes and remodel old ones.

To say that the flood gates will break open tomorrow, or next week, or even next month would be merely haphazard guesswork. But to say that they will is simply to state a fact.

Politically Speaking

By GEORGE E. HELMER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, July 3 —(UP)—Bets are running about even on the possibility of the new 3 per cent sales tax act being ruled unconstitutional because of the food exemption provision.

An early test of the problem was assured when the California Retail Grocers Association prepared to ask the state supreme court for a declaratory judgment on the validity of exempting foodstuffs.

Should the court rule the section unconstitutional, the sales tax rate would drop to 2 per cent, with no exemptions, and the state, theoretically, would lose $35,500,000 in new revenue.

Actually, the rate reduction would make practically no difference in the amount of revenue, in the opinion of Controller Ray L. Riley.

He estimated a 2 per cent rate without exemptions would return $96,000,000 biennially, and a 3 per cent rate with food exempted about the same.

This differs from the legislature's estimates of $85,000,000 at 2 per cent and $120,000,000 at 3 per cent with exemptions. The lawmakers hoped to pick up $35,500,000 by means of the new sales tax arrangement, but Riley foresaw only a gain of $11,000,000, and that because the lawmakers were $11,000,000 low in their estimate of the amount a 2 per cent rate would raise.

Over estimates in this and other new tax proposals will cause the state's income to fall at least $20,000,000 short of expenses, Riley figured. But if the electorate August 13 authorizes the state to make short term borrowings, California

TAHOE REGION NEWS

By Swanee

Mrs. Thelma Bond, guardian of local Camp Fire Girl's activities, will be in charge of the new out-of-door camp at Sandy Beach, one of several recently selected by officials of the organization for summer vacation outings. Sandy Beach Camp operated and owned by Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips, is considered ideal for this purpose as heavy timber and sand banks shelter the wide white beach expanse, where shallow water is unsurpassed for swimming. Land is now being cleared, shower installed, and electricity and telephone will be available. Fresh meat, groceries and milk will be delivered daily. Mrs. Bond has four very successful camping seasons to her credit, the last two as director of the Camp Fire Girls at Camp Fehatsi, the Tahoe Area boy scout camp. All C. F. G. members in good standing will be eligible to attend, as well as prospective members who have been recommended. This new venture is an interesting addition to the region whose benefits and beauties as a recreation land, are being realized and recognized more each year.

The Episcopalian chapel of the Transfiguration one block from the Tavern on the highway, is now holding services regularly. Rt. Rev. Portor, D. D. Bishop of Sacramento preaching in his unique, open air chapel each Sunday at 11 a. m. Louis S. Constine, D. D. S. of San Francisco, has established an office for the season at Brockway Hotel.

The Tavern show opened on Friday night with Maurice Chevalier and Jeanette MacDonald in "The Merry Widow," a prize picture of the year, "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" showing on Saturday.

We hope to be able to furnish column readers regularly with advance weekly programs of the Tavern showhouse very soon.

Richard Kirman Jr. is reported by hospital attendants as improving rapidly from his recent severe illness. He may even be able to leave for his home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shainwald and family of San Francisco have left for a 9 weeks vacation trip to Europe, during which they plan to cover the continent extensively. Their lovely home in the Sunnyside district is rented for the season to the William G. Volkman family of Berkeley.

Their local neighbors, the Kents, have rented their big house to the Lowes of San Francisco, and Stanley Brush and family of the city have taken their small cottage for the summer. Mrs. F. Parks of San Mateo recently purchased the Thos. Kent place here.

N. R. Mayfield, local contractor, reports an exceptionally busy season, having just completed a store building for Mrs. Craven of Fallen Leaf Lodge. He is at present making alterations for Mrs. Kanter of Reno at her Homewood home. About one third finished is the beautiful new 12 room stone and rustic summer home near Cal Neva he is now constructing for L. W. Hills, San Francisco coffee merchant. Russell Mills of Reno was the architect on this job. In Lake Forest he is building a 4 room rustic cottage and garage for George Day of the Reno Furniture Co. The classic new 7 room stone and wood residence of the Sidney M. Ehrman's at Pine Lodge is rapidly nearing completion. Mayfield who keeps 35 local men busy locally, is the builder, and C. W. Mayfield of Oakland was the architect.

Dr. J. A. Cutting, stationed at Agnew's State Hospital, and his young son enjoyed a profitable day's fishing up Ward Creek last week, the youngest catching 14 of the day's haul. They report that the mosquito pestilence could not possibly be overestimated.

Many out of state car licenses have been observed at Tahoe during the week-end, and throngs of cars swarming the highways and filling local resorts. Never in the memories of old timers here, has the buck brush bloomed so effusively on hillside slopes and in shaded hollows, as this year, the air wafted from the dainty white flower clusters fairly cloyed with sickening sweetness. The reason advanced for the exceptional bloom is the late, cool spring, with plenty of moisture in the ground, and enough sunshine to keep them budding. This region is a riot of beauty now, with purple lupin, yellow sun flower, Indian paint brush and giant blue forget-me-nots abounding.

Detroit Zoo Defies Safe Robbers

When thieves broke into the Detroit zoo and took more than $300 from the safe, Director John Millen decided it should not happen again. A special money box was made for the park funds and every night it is placed in the lions' cage. Mr. Millen says safe breakers are welcome to try to get the money now.

her bridge club from Reno at the home of Mrs. Frank Harden in Lake Forest last week. Dainty refreshments succeeding the card playing. Those sharing her hospitality were Mesdames Tom Doherty, Kelly Klaus, Albert Ast, Otto Herz, Dell Hammond, Eddie McQuarrie, Frank Harden and Harry Garguilo. Prizes were won by Mesdames Doherty and McQuarrie.

Alabama Inn enjoyed an excellent patronage on the occasion of its official opening Saturday night last, a jolly crowd enjoying the superb dinner served in the colorful glassed-in dining room, as well as the tantalizing dance tunes by Harry Brooks' orchestra on the specially constructed out of doors dance platform. The night was ideal, the food delicious, despite the failure of a number of essentials, such as the steam tables, etc., to arrive in time. Alabama Inn should continue to enjoy a fashionable attendance of those connoisseurs of good food and refined surroundings who also appreciate an opportunity to trip the light fantastic. Among those making reservations were Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Leitch, Mr. and Mrs. William Topp, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Van Luvn, Tony Pace, Jean Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Everett McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bechtolt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hill, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Tahoe Vista is being completely remodeled by its new proprietor C. L. Westlake of San Francisco. He replaces J. L. Murphy of San Francisco, the original buyer, who was ordered out of the high altitude by his family physician, bringing him keenest disappointment. The store and post office next door were released to K. O. Bohme who continues to operate them. A new cocktail room is being added and tinted celotex now lines the large lobby which also has been refurbished. The side of the building next to the highway is being torn out and remodeled into a front entrance with an attractive false fireplace in the center of the edifice. Rock walks and gardens will enhance the general appearance of the structure, which is being entirely repainted in white.

Little Raymond Solomon of Colorado, house guest of Mrs. Robert Green of the Bettencourt Tract, suffered a broken ankle when he fell from a truck being operated by his older brother at Homewood. Dr. Pederson is attending his injured foot.

The Mt. Lassen Ski Club has issued an invitation exhibition meet to be held at Lake Helen on July 4th. ## NORDEN NEWS

Several of Norden fishing enthusiasts motored to various lakes and surrounding streams over the past weekend in search of the elusive trout, light catches being made and others becoming totally discouraged. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Libby with Louis Featsent, Joseph Casari motored to Lake Sterling and Rock Lakes with fair catches being made, while Elmer Eversalt with his father T. E. Eversalt of Sacramento had little luck in Donner Lake.

Frank H. Briggs of Roseville who has been visiting with friends at Norden is now located at Lake Independence where he is making fine catches of trout.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fisher of Knights Landing are vacationing on the shores of Lake Van Norden for several days where they have pitched their camp while fishing the Yuba river. The Fishers will be remembered as being connected with the Southern Pacific Company during the period of the staff control of trains throughout the shed territory.

Mrs. F. P. O'Connell, mother of Mrs. T. E. Eversalt is visiting relatives and friends in Seattle and other Pacific Northwest points indefinitely.

Several of Norden residents plan to be in Roseville for the 4th of July Whiskerino celebration as well as several will motor to Reno for the Rodeo.

Mrs. Harold Boomer with Alice and Bobby are in Portland, Oregon for the 4th of July holidays to visit with her father and relatives. They plan to be away a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Widdows of Pasadena have been visiting with friends in Norden.

The Hackley home had many friends and relatives visiting over the past week.

George Cangler of Sacramento was a recent visitor in Norden.

Mrs. William Beall and son of Sacramento are visiting in Norden among relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Donovan of Sacramento, as well as Mrs. Pearl Buck and her son Arthur and daughter Evelyn, are house guests of the Eversalts for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. O'Connell with their son, James motored from Sacramento last week end to visit several hours with the Eversalts.

Mrs. Charles Church and son Ben are recent arrivals from Sacramento. Roy Thayer has much to remark in complete satisfaction over his recent trip to San Francisco. A popular Sacramento miss in his company had much to do for the success.

Manuel Berry has moved his family to Norden from Sacramento for the summer.

Opportunity

PERHAPS one may say there is no opportunity for him; another, that opportunity is dependent upon personal influence and helpful environment, both of which he seems to lack. Another has some wonderful opportunity of which he takes advantage, and through which he gains success. Opportunities for service may seem to be opened to some while they are closed to others. Sometimes an individual goes to a country or locality other than his own, seeking opportunity to achieve the goal of his desire, seeking to gain that which to him means happiness and success. Another finds his opportunity at home.

What is opportunity, this thing which aids or hinders the progress of men? In a dictionary the root word is given as "before the harbor;" and a harbor is a port through which one enters a country; therefore, a gateway. The Psalmist said (118:19), "Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will go into them, and I will praise the Lord." Is not the gate to righteousness the ability to think rightly? Jesus opened a great doorway of opportunity to his disciples when, as it is written, he "opened . . . their understanding." He taught them how to think rightly; how to know the truth, to understand and to utilize the power of God. He enabled them to realize their oneness with God, hence their oneness with the nature, qualities, and attributes of perfect Being, the result of which was shown when they took advantage of opportunities to heal the sick and cast out devils.

One may always think rightly, and right thinking leads to attainment. In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 193) Mary Baker Eddy has written these inspiring words: "The devotion of thought to an honest achievement makes the achievement possible. Exceptions only confirm this rule, proving that failure is occasioned by a too feeble faith."

If one who has not succeeded in some honest endeavor will search his thought, he may find that what he needs in order to gain success is not so much an opportunity as a stronger faith in God, a firmer conviction of His omnipotence, an increased expectation of receiving, which, in turn, inspires greater effort towards attaining the good already provided by the loving Father. The faith which leads to achievement is founded on the truth that God, good, is all-powerful and His goodness available to all.

It may be that one has for years believed he is the victim of circumstances, or is handicapped by his environment, or, perhaps, is held in bondage to distressful conditions because of lack of health, education, or personal influence. Since God is omnipotent, circumstances have no power to victimize the true thinker; and because God is everywhere, environment or place cannot handicap one who understands the omnipresence of good. And as spiritual man is free-born, he can never be held in bondage to any material circumstance or condition. Understanding this, no one need remain behind the closed door of false beliefs; he may begin immediately to know and declare the truth regarding the situation. . . . Holding thought steadfastly to the truth leads to realization of the truth, and realization to achievement, thus proving that the door of opportunity is always open. . . .

The gateway of opportunity is open and will ever remain so; but just as there are regulations to be complied with before a ship may enter a harbor, so there are laws to be obeyed as one passes through the gateway of right thinking to the land of opportunity. Not only should one conform his thinking to laws of right, justice, love, but he must obey them. Whatever the door of opportunity one would enter, the requirements are always the same, namely, that the desire be worthy, the purpose honest, and the effort steadfast.

Wherever one is, he may obey the loving counsel of the Master, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness;" to which he added the promise, "and all these things shall be added unto you" (Matthew 6:33). Mrs. Eddy has written (The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellaneous, p. 203), "Our thoughts beget our actions; they make us what we are." Conforming one's thoughts to those of God, good, one may go forward to the attainment of genuine success and happiness. Through the gateway of right thinking one may surely reach any high and honest goal.

One who enters the land of right desire through the door of correct thinking, achieving thereby some worthy purpose, will, as did the Psalmist, "praise the Lord;" for he knows that God is his strength and intelligence, and is therefore giving him the ability to progress.—The Christian Science Monitor.

TO DELINQUENT TAX PROPERTY OWNERS

Section 3817J of the Political Code of the State of California, added and in effect June 12th, 1935, provides that where real estate has been sold to the State on or before July 6th, 1934, the owner may redeem the same by paying all unpaid taxes against the property, without any penalties, costs or interest charges. But he must redeem the property ON OR BEFORE SEPTEMBER 1st, 1935, as this law is only in effect until that date.

Any owner desiring to take advantage of this section can obtain the amount required to redeem his property from the County Auditor's Office in Nevada City, California.

Any owner can save himself additional costs, and all interest charges previously charged, by making a redemption of his property any time from this date to September 1st, 1935.

R. N. McCORMACK,
County Auditor.

Arrangements for installing radio equipment, including sending and receiving sets, at the offices of the bureau here have been completed. The system of radio telephones will connect the headquarters with all national forests in the state.

Forecasts to be broadcast to both state and national forestry service field agents, will be under direction of L. G. Gray, chief of the government's California fire weather service.

LET US MAKE YOUR 4th of JULY TRIP SAFER

BEFORE you start on your holiday trip, let us completely inspect your car. There is no charge for this service and it will assure you of a safer and more enjoyable trip.

For the convenience and safety of car owners Firestone has established more than 500 Auto Supply and Service Stores throughout the country, and thousands of Firestone Dealers are also equipped with complete Auto Supplies and complete Service Departments, to test and service your tires, brakes, batteries, spark plugs, in addition to power lubrication and crank case service.

AVOID THE DANGER OF BLOWOUTS

Firestone removes the danger of blowouts by preventing their main cause—internal friction and heat. This is accomplished by Gum-Dipping.

THERE ARE THREE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS THAT WILL SOLVE YOUR PROBLEM OF WHAT TIRES TO BUY:

1 "Will the tread give me the greatest traction and protection against skidding?"

—Recent tests by a leading University show that Firestone High Speed Non-Skid Tires stop a car 15% quicker than any other of the leading makes.

For eight consecutive years Firestone Tires have been on the winning car in the dangerous Pike's Peak Race where a skid means death.

2 "Are they blowout-proof?"

—Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires have the most amazing records for being blowout-proof of any tires ever built. In the gruelling 500-Mile Race at Indianapolis, May 30th, every one of the 33 cars was equipped with Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires. Not one of the 33 drivers had tire trouble of any kind.

Ab Jenkins drove his 5,000 pound car on Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires over the hot salt beds of Utah, 3,000 miles, averaging 127.2 miles per hour, with temperatures as high as 120°, without tire trouble of any kind.

3 "Without sacrificing these two important safety features will they give me longer mileage, thus making them the most economical tires I can buy?"

—Firestone High Speed Tires not only give you more than 50% longer wear, but also lowest cost per mile. In fact, unequalled mileage records of thousands of car owners add undisputed evidence of the longer wear and greater economy of Firestone High Speed Tires.

Equip your car with a set of Firestone Gum-Dipped Non-Skid Tires, the safest tires ever built and avoid the dangers of skidding and blowouts.

CHAPTER 5
Dead-End Street

The rebel students realize they are getting nowhere with their heated talks and pamphlets and decide upon immediate action. Rioting breaks out all over Paris.

Under cover of the commotion, Jean decides to make a break for it from his new hiding-place in the Rue Duond. He is just completing arrangements for a relay of coaches to carry Cosette and himself to the sea-coast town of Calais when the old concierge comes in, exhausted. "Terrible night!" he pants. "Police everywhere—street fights and what not—"

"But the letter to Marius, did he get it?" asks Cosette anxiously.

"The office was smashed up—the police had raided it. He escaped. I gave the letter to a strange girl, who said she would give it to him—said she was his secretary, Eponine—that you'd know her."

Cosette's expression is that she feels Eponine will never give Marius the letter.

"Are you ready to go?" Jean interrupts Cosette.

"Yes—but we can't go with all this fighting in the streets."

"Yes, yes; that's good; don't you see? It's an ideal time. The police will have their hands full and guards will be withdrawn from the barriers."

"How, how far are we going?"

"England."

"England?" (alarmed.)

"Yes, I was a fool to stay here. I might have known I'd be found out eventually. We shall be safe there."

In his joy he embraces her.

"Yes, but—I can't go. I can't leave him. He doesn't know where I am. He'll think—"

"But who?"

"Marius! I shall never find him."

"Marius?" Jean is completely puzzled. He has no idea what he means to her.

"But what is this man to you?"

"I love him, that's all."

Still Jean simply can't believe it. He half-smiles, almost as though he were treating a child.

"But—you can't have seen him twice in your life!"

"Yes, I met him often—I didn't tell you, but we were going to tell you. He was coming to see you the night we had to leave."

House of Cards

Jean looks at her a long time in bewilderment. The whole of his house of cards tumbles down and he breaks into a hysterical little laugh at the way Fate has played with him.

"But me—me! Have you nothing for me?"

"But you're my father—I mean I always think of you as my father. I know you're really not, but don't you see, with Marius, it's different. It isn't just that lovely sense of companionship that I have with you—it's—it's like every girl feels for the man who is going to be her husband."

His whole expression begins to change. He wants to take Cosette away; he is searching for a line to take, searching cunningly, calculating as to how to play on her emotions.

"Yes," (deliberately) "It's natural you should want to leave me."

The words have the desired effect. "I didn't—until this happened. I never thought of leaving you. No one could have been happier than I. I'll go to England—I'll forget him somehow, I will—I swear I will—"

Jean clutches at this last straw. He tries to persuade himself and her that it is best to go. His one idea is to get her away—rush the journey before she can have time to think.

"Of course, if I could do anything for him I would—you know I would, but I can't. We don't even know where he is, and if we stay here they'll arrest me and heaven knows what will happen to you. No, it's best for us to go, isn't it? We can make all inquiries about him from England—that's best—isn't it?"

Cosette nods half-heartedly.

The door to the street is pushed back violently and Eponine staggers in, panting and exhausted.

"I've run halfway across Paris with all the gendarmes and police in France on my trail—and if I'm not mistaken there's still a couple on the corner waiting—phew!"

"Who are you?" asked Jean.

"I've come to see a girl called Cosette. I've a note for her—from Marius."

"Marius?"

"Yes, the only man who ever meant anything to me and I—have to carry messages of undying affection to another woman—Funny, isn't it?"

"Where is he now?"

"Fighting for his life in the Faubourg St. Germain—troops all around him—he and his stupid students, getting themselves slaughtered—for what? I'd have kept him out of it, but when he didn't hear from his sweetheart he didn't care what happened. Now he's in—trapped in a blind alley determined to die for his silly cause. Aren't men fools?"

"Now (continuing), when will this Cosette be back?"

"She's here—but I'm trying to get her to go to England tonight."

"England? And he's never to see her again perhaps?" To her it is a flash of hope that she may be able to part these two.

"If we tell her where he is she'll want to go to him."

"She couldn't get there. You might, but she couldn't."

Plans to Rescue Marius

"Why should I go to him?"

"Don't you want to save him—for your daughter?"

"Why should I? She belongs to me—to me. I have a right—she's all I have—why, he may be beyond help already. Nothing to be gained, nothing, I tell you. What's this boy to me that I should risk my life—for him?"

Eponine looks up at him and nods. Then adds in a quiet voice:

"I know just how you feel, but it seems that they love each other."

"What are we going to do about that, you and I? That defers us both, doesn't it?—Well, shall I tell her or will you?"

He looks down at Eponine. The cunning, crafty look in his eyes goes away. This girl has the courage and is showing him the only way out for him to take.

A knock at the door interrupts them. A coachman comes in and announces the horses in readiness for the flight to Calais. Jean is between Eponine and the coachman. He looks from one to the other. He decides.

"Cosette! Cosette!" (then to Eponine) "Can you show me the way—can we get him out?"

"I know the way in, but heaven knows if we'll ever get him out."

Jean is now galvanized into action. "Cosette!" he repeats as the girl appears in the doorway of the room where she has completed packing. "We've found Marius! We're going to him now."

"Let me go with you!" gasps Cosette eagerly.

"It's impossible—you must stay here."

He dismisses the coachman with a word as he and Eponine disappear through the door into the streets of terror.

Townsend Club To Hold Picnic at Lake Tahoe

The Truckee Townsend Club held its weekly meeting Monday evening in the Masonic Hall with an enthusiastic audience in attendance. The club membership is growing fast with many more prospective members in sight. A basket picnic will be held Sunday Aug. 18th at Camp Richardson, Lake Tahoe, the public is cordially invited to attend. Prominent speakers will be present. An invitation will be extended to Governor Frank Merriam to attend. The picnic will be broadcast over KNX and a large crowd is expected.

The next meeting of the club will be held in the Masonic Hall Monday evening, July 1st. Remember the date, everyone invited.

Congress needn't feel ashamed. In a test case, the Ten Commandments would doubtless prove unconstitutional.

Christian Science

"Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ!"

These words from Revelation comprised the Golden Text used Sunday, June 30, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon was "Christian Science." Included among the Scriptural selections was:

"There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one" (Acts 5: 16).

The following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, were also included: "Will you tell the sick that their condition is hopeless unless it can be aided by a drug or climate? Are material means the only refuge from fatal chances? Is there no divine permission to conquer discord of every kind with harmony, with Truth and Love?—We need to understand the affirmations of divine Science, dismiss superstition, and demonstrate truth according to Christ" (pp. 394, 149).

Course in Housekeeping
Popular in Roseville School

ROSEVILLE, June 20.—(UP)—One of the most popular courses at the high school here is housekeeping.

A report of Principal J. W. Hanson showed 233 students have registered for the course for the next term, making necessary the addition of one teacher to this department.

ment. The course includes cooking, sewing and home-making.

Included in the registrations were 48 boys, who have signed up for the cooking classes.

Japan has produced a key-winding car which runs 200 miles without attention. Fancy, dropping into a garage for a crystal and new mainspring.

Not Effective Until Sept.SACRAMENTO, July 3 —(UP)— California sportsmen need be little concerned over most of the new fish and game laws passed by the recent legislature until September Fifteenth.Bills which did not carry "urgency clauses" will not be effective until 90 days after the legislature adjourned, according to Herbert C. Davis, executive officer of the division of fish and game. While several new laws were added to the fish and game code, Davis said, only the bill prohibiting use of fresh trout spawn as bait carried the "urgency clause" and became operative immediately.Information concerning changes brought about by the new legislation will not be available until after the governor has acted on the measures,
Davis added.Separate Election Boards
Necessary for ElectionSACRAMENTO, July 3 —(UP)— Counties planning to conduct local bond elections in connection with the state special election August 13 will find it necessary to appoint two sets of officials, a ruling of Attorney General U. S. Webb said.Under the constitutional amendment submitting the state's $13,000,- 000 bond issue to the voters provision was made for only three election officials. State law governing county bond elections require boards of four members, Webb pointed out.Separate boards and ballots should be used, in Webb's opinion, in order to avoid any question of validity of the bond issue because of irregularity in following the law.Send the Sierra Sun — better

Citations for defective headlights this year have increased more than 50 per cent over those in 1934, as a result of the intensive drive under way by the state highway patrol.
During the first four months of 1935, a total of 80,638 California mo-torists were stopped for examination of lights. Of this number more than 38,000 received citations requiring adjustment of lights, while 2,745 were placed under arrest.Special orders also have been issued patrolmen to watch for faulty
